You and Yours | a +1 Exhibition

Exhibition Dates : Nov 13, 2020 – Jan 31, 2021

jdc Fine Art is proud to present You and Yours, an online group exhibition organized as remedy to the disconnection of social distance and isolation of quarantine. Over 20 artists have been selected for inclusion. Neither Gallery nor Artists were limited by media or attachment to “regular practice.”

Any age would feel daunted by the challenges posed by a global pandemic. You and Yours counts our blessings and emphasizes the power in connectivity. Contemporary life equips us to engage without exposure, even gather without physical reunion. Like the virus that threatens us, our potential connections and actions have no bounds. You and Yours provides an online space for virtual communion. We recognize that new ideas and perspectives offer distraction and comfort, meditation and reconsideration, but above all— hope to all who encounter them. What unites these works is a heightened resonance in this moment. Welcome was surprise, yet even the most tangent thread feels like a natural proliferation, an augmentation on a collective framework for thought.

You and Yours was designed to cast a wide net and bring new artists and ideas into our circle while revealing the far-reaching web of contact one individual has with society. The gallery asked a core group of represented and previously exhibited artists to contribute work and extend the invitation outward by proposing a colleague for inclusion. The +1 aspect of You and Yours not only lifts the veil on the unknown circle of contact, it also harmonizes with the idea of viral spread. Our metaphorical circle unites members through shared emotion and philosophy.

Included artists and preview images release publically October 13
 Advance release to press by request.
